REPORT

As part of the NAAC Peer Team Visit held on 18 and 19 July 2024, the NSS unit organised an impressive exhibition that brought to light its wide range of social service initiatives. The exhibition served as a platform to display the vibrant involvement of student volunteers in various outreach programmes. It featured an array of informative posters, engaging photographs, and creative models that showcased the unit's commitment to environmental protection, community development, and public health awareness.

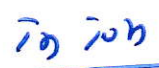

The displays highlighted the volunteers' involvement in activities such as tree plantation drives, waste management efforts, health and hygiene awareness sessions, and support for underprivileged communities. In addition, students shared personal reflections on their participation in impactful initiatives like blood donation camps, cleanliness drives under the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan, and adult literacy campaigns.

The NAAC Peer Team commended the dedication, discipline, and compassion demonstrated by the NSS volunteers. Their appreciation affirmed the significance of such initiatives in nurturing civic responsibility and social awareness among students. The exhibition not only celebrated the efforts of the volunteers but also underscored the vital role of social engagement in holistic education. It was a proud moment for the NSS unit, reaffirming its mission of service to society through education and action.
