REPORT

In connection with National Youth Day, a pledge-taking ceremony was organised under the leadership of the NSS Unit of the college in August 2024. The programme aimed to inspire students to follow the ideals and values of Swami Vivekananda, whose birthday is celebrated as National Youth Day. NSS volunteers and students assembled and took a solemn pledge to uphold the spirit of youth, social responsibility, and nation-building. The NSS Programme Officer addressed the gathering, highlighting the importance of selfless service and positive leadership among youth. The event motivated participants to contribute actively towards community development and national progress. The ceremony concluded with the singing of the National Anthem, reaffirming unity and dedication to the nation.
