REPORT

The Pothichoru initiative, conducted on 13 August 2024, was a meaningful humanitarian effort undertaken by the NSS volunteers to support underprivileged individuals in the community. As part of the programme, 50 wholesome food packets were donated to Patheyam, a charitable organisation based in Koratty that serves the needy. What made this initiative unique and deeply personal was that the food was lovingly prepared and packed by the volunteers in their own homes. Each pothichoru—a traditional Kerala-style packed meal—contained a balanced combination of rice, curries, pickles, and protein, ensuring both taste and nutrition.

The volunteers coordinated among themselves to ensure variety, hygiene, and quality, and later gathered to deliver the food packets to the distribution centre. This act of kindness was met with heartfelt gratitude from the beneficiaries, many of whom expressed how these meals brought comfort and relief in difficult times. The event was not just about feeding the hungry—it was about spreading love, dignity, and solidarity.

For the students, the initiative was a powerful reminder of the role each person can play in bringing change. It reinforced the values of empathy, sharing, and collective responsibility, inspiring them to take part in more such socially impactful activities in the future.
