REPORT

On 25 September 2024, as part of its ongoing literacy initiative, the NSS unit of our college donated 100 books to the library of MAMHS, Koratty. The donated collection included a rich variety of books across multiple disciplines such as literature, science, history, and self-improvement, catering to the diverse academic and personal development needs of the students. This thoughtful contribution was aimed at nurturing a strong reading culture among schoolchildren and providing them access to quality educational resources. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from both the NSS volunteers and the school community. The school authorities and students wholeheartedly appreciated the gesture, highlighting the positive impact it would have on their academic journey. For the NSS volunteers, it was a meaningful experience that strengthened their commitment to promoting education and knowledge sharing. The initiative reflected the core values of the NSS—service, community development, and empowering the youth through education.
