REPORT

On 28 September 2024, NSS volunteers from Naipunnnya Institute of Management and Information Technology delivered a compelling anti-drug dance performance at St. Francis Assisi H.S., Athani, as part of the Assisian Mini Marathon event. The performance was a creative and emotionally engaging portrayal of the harsh realities of substance abuse, the influence of peer pressure, and the difficult yet hopeful journey towards recovery and rehabilitation.

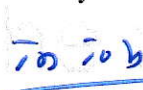

Through expressive movements and powerful storytelling, the volunteers highlighted how drug addiction can disrupt lives and families, while also offering a message of hope and resilience. The dance was carefully choreographed to resonate with the audience, especially the youth, encouraging them to reflect on the importance of making healthy life choices.

The performance left a lasting impression and received heartfelt appreciation from students, teachers, local authorities, and members of the community who were present at the event. It was praised not only for its artistic quality but also for its strong social message. By combining art with awareness, the NSS unit succeeded in reaching out to the public in a meaningful way, reinforcing the significance of creative expression in promoting social change and substance abuse prevention.
