REPORT

On 15 November 2024, the NSS unit of our college organised a meaningful and impactful AIDS Awareness Programme in collaboration with the Thrissur District Medical Office, the Kerala State AIDS Control Society, and the travelling theatre group Naadakavandi. The primary aim of the programme was to educate students and the public on critical issues related to HIV/AIDS, including prevention methods, the importance of early detection, and the need to eliminate stigma and discrimination associated with the disease.

A major highlight of the event was the thought-provoking street play performed by Naattarang, a renowned theatre group from Karunagappilly. Through compelling storytelling, powerful dialogues, and emotional appeal, the performance succeeded in capturing the attention of the audience and conveying vital health messages. The play focused on promoting safe health practices, encouraging responsible sexual behaviour, and highlighting the social and emotional struggles faced by people living with HIV.

The students found the programme enlightening and emotionally engaging. It opened up conversations on a topic that is often considered taboo and helped cultivate empathy and awareness. The presence and participation of medical professionals added further credibility to the event. Overall, the programme made a strong impression, fostering a culture of awareness, compassion, and responsibility among the participants.
