REPORT

As part of the institution's commitment to social responsibility and community engagement, the students of the 2nd year BCA A batch at Naipunnnya Institute of Management and Information Technology organized an outreach activity at the Nedumbassery Grama Panchayat Buds School on April 11, 2025. This initiative aimed to spread joy, learning, and support among children with special needs, while fostering empathy and awareness among the students.

Students of IVth Semester BCA A contributed essential study materials and sweets to the inmates. This activity was a meaningful and impactful experience to cultivate a sense of social responsibility and compassion among students. During the visit, students conducted various interactive and engaging sessions including, fun games, storytelling and music sessions. It was a memorable day not only for the inmates but also for the students.
