REPORT

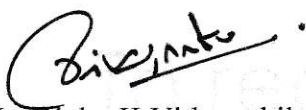

The Leading Hands Program (LHP) Skill Boost Training session was organized by the Department of Training with the objective of enhancing leadership, communication, and teamwork skills among students. The programme was conducted on 20th August 2025 from 1:15 p.m. onwards at the MBA Seminar Hall. The session was specifically arranged for second-year LHP students to strengthen their interpersonal and professional development skills.

The session was handled by Mr. Abin John from the Department of Training, who served as the resource person for the programme. The training focused on developing essential soft skills such as communication, coordination, problem-solving, and team spirit, which are crucial for effective leadership and professional growth.

A total of 20 second-year LHP students attended the session. The programme was efficiently coordinated by the third-year LHP students, who ensured the smooth conduct of the event and active participation of all attendees.

The programme was well appreciated by the participants and proved to be an enriching learning experience. Overall, the session was a great success and contributed significantly to the development of essential interpersonal and leadership skills among the students.
