REPORT

On Wednesday, March 4, 2026, the Post Graduate Department of Commerce at Naipunnya Institute of Management and Information Technology (NIMIT) organized a specialized seminar titled "Indian Knowledge System (IKS): Seminar on Vedic Management." The program was conducted at the Nivedika Seminar Hall in the Main Block and aimed to explore the relevance of ancient Indian wisdom in contemporary management practices. The seminar brought together faculty members and students of P G department of Commerce to reflect on how Vedic principles can contribute to modern professional and organizational environments.

The seminar commenced at 1:30 p.m. with a silent prayer, setting a reflective tone for the session. The program was effectively moderated by Ms. Angelina Sajeew, a third-year B. Com student, who served as the Master of Ceremonies. Dr. Mathew Jose K., Head of the PG Department of Commerce, delivered the welcome address at 1:32 p.m., highlighting the importance of integrating Indian Knowledge Systems into modern commerce education. The technical session began at 1:35 p.m. and was led by Dr. Mathusoodanan Kartha N N, Professor at Panampilly Memorial Government College, Chalakudy. He provided deep insights into the concept of Vedic management, explaining how ancient Indian philosophical principles offer practical solutions to contemporary organizational challenges, leadership issues, and ethical decision-making.

An interactive session followed at 2:20 p.m., during which participants actively engaged with the resource person through thoughtful questions and discussions. This interaction enriched the learning experience and enabled students to gain clarity on applying Vedic principles in real-world management contexts. The seminar concluded at 2:30 p.m. with a formal Vote of Thanks delivered by Athulya C S, a second-semester M. Com student, who expressed gratitude to the management, faculty, resource person, and participants for their valuable contributions.

The event received strong support from the institutional leadership, including Rev. Fr. Dr. Paulachan K. J., Executive Director and Principal, along with Dr. Mathew Jose K., HoD of the PG Department of Commerce. The program was coordinated by Ms. Lakshmy Priya M G, whose efforts ensured the smooth conduct of the seminar.

Overall, the Seminar on Vedic Management successfully highlighted the enduring significance of the Indian Knowledge System in the field of Commerce. By bridging traditional heritage with modern educational practices, the PG Department of Commerce provided participants with meaningful insights into value-based leadership, ethical governance, and sustainable organizational development.
